Chapter 1 by chiara465

I finally get what they all mean "YOU CAN RUN BUT YOU CANT HIDE". Always feeling exposed, constantly watching your back thinking "Are they here?" "Can this get any worse?" "Am I safe?" Running, running, running. Until you stop.

This is how it all started. I was at school going in my locker and a not fell out.

You are one of the selected. Go to this address to fulfil your destiny

As I threw the note back into my locker I would never have guess that part of me would believe it. A few hours later I was in my bedroom just thinking about the note then all of a sudden I was in this alley laying down on the dirt with people standing and circling around me. So of course I did the obvious thing that anyone would do so I screamed but there was barley any sound. This guy came up to holding his hand in a position that made it seem like he was clutching on something but, nothing was there. I stood up getting more scared every time he steeped toward me and someone backed away. Before I knew it I was losing my breath unable to breath I started holding my throat. He got closer to my ear and whispered "I'm Walter, welcome to boot camp"
